Queensland Family History Society Research Service
Post: PO Box 171, Indooroopilly, QLD, 4068
Email: research@qfhs.org.au
Website: www.qfhs.org.au
ABN: 60 860 936 626

Researching family in Malta

The following organisations and weblinks may assist when researching Maltese family.

Public Registry Office Malta - Maltese ancestors birth, marriage or death certificates can be ordered via this site so long as you have the sufficient details.

https://www.identitymalta.com/unit/public-registry-office/

Archdiocese of Malta Archives - Malta's church registers and manuscripts of births, marriages and deaths.

https://archives.church.mt/

National Archives Malta - any documents you seek in relation to your Maltese ascendants can be searched here.

https://nationalarchives.gov.mt/en/

Archives Portal Europe - all Maltese passports (applications) from 1878-1938 can be found via this database.

https://www.archivesportaleurope.net/

FamilySearch - requires free account.

https://www.familysearch.org/en/wiki/Malta_Genealogy

Cyndi's List for Malta – list of helpful links.

https://www.cyndislist.com/malta

Genealogy & Family History Stack Exchange - a question and answer site for expert genealogists and people interested in genealogy or family history.

https://genealogy.stackexchange.com/questions/13292/looking-into-maltese-ancestry

Ancestry RootsWeb message board for Malta.

https://www.ancestry.com/boards/localities.weurope.malta

Geneanet - a large community of genealogists involved in mutual aid and sharing in Continental Europe.

https://en.geneanet.org/fonds/?id_filter_block=search-filter-geo&loc_1=MLT&size=10

Geneanum or Digital Genealogy - a free website which specializes in Mediterranean genealogical research where successive waves of immigration (French, Italian, Spanish, ...) were very important.

https://en.geneanum.com/malta.html

Maltagenealogy – Australian-based site with information regarding Malta and it's family history.

https://maltagenealogy.com/

Maltese DNA & Genealogy: Facebook group – private group with 4,000+ members who have an interest in the Maltese ancestors.

https://www.facebook.com/groups/MaltaProject/